

CONCERT QUICK GUIDE™

SUN 10/15/17 at 3 PM

Performance #68: Season 3, Concert 5

Rose Theater, Jazz at Lincoln Center's Frederick P. Rose Hall

Neemi Järvi, conductor

The concert will last approximately 2 hours and 5 minutes

Jean Sibelius

Born: 12/8/1865 in Hämeenlinna, Finland

Died: 9/20/1957 at age 91 in Järvenpää, Finland

Andante Festivo

"The piece really transports you to Finland, to a snowy and mystic landscape. It takes your imagination anywhere."

—Diego Gabete, TÖN musician

Written

For string quartet in 1922,
at age 56

Rescored for string orchestra in 1938

Premiered

1/1/1939 in a radio broadcast
Radio Orchestra (now Finnish Radio Symphony Orchestra)
Conducted by the composer

5 min

Brief remarks by Hao Xing, violin

Anton Rubinstein

Born: 11/28/1829 in Vikhvatinet, Podolia, Russia
(now Ukraine)

Died: 11/20/1894 at age 64 in Peterhof, Russia

Piano Concerto No. 4

"This concerto is an inwardly passionate and tragic drama. It's almost like watching fireworks on the piano!"

—Paul Nemeth, TÖN musician

Anna Shelest, piano

the youngest prize winner of the Milosz Magin Int'l Piano Competition

Movements

Moderato assai (A very moderate tempo)

Andante (Moderately slow)

Allegro (Fast)

Written

1864, at age 34. Revised in 1872.

32 min

20 min

Caprice Russe

"It's like a musical postcard from Russia, traveling through memories and time with a cavernous, weaving sound."

—Drew Youmans, TÓN musician

Anna Shelest, piano

Written

1878, at age 48

20 min

Intermission

Meet & greet

some of the musicians outside the theater

Share a selfie

@TheOrchNow
#TheOrchNow

Refreshments

available in the atrium

WiFi: JazzPublicWiFi

Restrooms located on either side of the theater.

Brief remarks by Federico Ramos, bass trombone

Michael Daugherty

Born: 4/28/1954 in Cedar Rapids, IA

Tales of Hemingway

"I love this piece! Daugherty's colorful orchestration evokes images of expansive landscapes, creating a poetic tribute to these places and stories."

—Eleanor Lee, TÓN musician

Zuill Bailey, cello

Grammy Award winner for his recording of this work

29 min

Movements

Big Two-Hearted River

For Whom the Bell Tolls

The Old Man and the Sea

The Sun Also Rises

Written

2015, at age 60

Premiered

4/17/15 at Schermerhorn

Symphony Center in Nashville
Nashville Symphony

Giancarlo Guerrero, conductor

Zuill Bailey, cello

All timings are approximate.

FOLLOW US AT @TheOrchNow

Text TON to 33233
for email updates

Artwork by Khoa Doan | Concert Quick Guide design by Nelson Yan

THEORCHESTRANOW.ORG